REF: Report of the 4th EVVF European Vovinam Junior Championships 2023

London, 4 July 2023

Dear Members,

The European Vovinam Viet Vo Dao Federation (EVVF) together with the Spanish Vovinam Viet Vo Dao Association organised the 4th EVVF European Vovinam Junior Championships which took place from June 30 to July 2, 2023 at Pancraccio Socas Garcia Sport Center (Santiago del Teide – Tenerife, Spain). The Championships attracted 202 delegates including officials, coaches, referees and competitors from 7 countries. Six countries took part in the competitions: Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Romania and Spain. Competitors from 3 groups of age (9-12 years old, 13-15 years old and 16-18 years old) competed for 40 sets of medals (25 in performance and 15 in fighting). You will find in a separate document the detailed results in each category of each group as well as the final ranking table.

First place cup was awarded to France, second place cup was awarded to Italy and third place cup was awarded to Romania for being the countries who achieved the most gold medals in participating in both technical performance and fighting competitions. Best athletes in performance prizes were awarded to Aurora Ielpo (Italy) and Hoai Nam Lai (France) for group 1, Margherita Corcione (Italy) and Filippo Melzi (Italy) in group 2, Viet-Trang Blanka Nguyen (Germany) and Riccardo Verza (Italy) in group 3. Best fighters prizes were awarded to Gaia Agostoni (Italy) and Thibaud Hodge (France) in group 2, Teodora-Andreea-Madalina Tigau (Romania) and Walid Hammoudi (France) in group 3. Our youngest female athlete was Emma Lauria (Belgium) and youngest male athlete was Cezar-Gabriel Niculescu (Romania).

We would like to express our special thanks to the host – Spanish Vovinam Viet Vo Dao Association for the effort to organise these championships. Also, we would like to thank all the officials, coaches, referees, athletes, volunteers, reporters and supporters who have contributed to the big success of the championships. We are grateful for the support of the City Council of Santiago del Teide as well as all sponsors of the Spanish Vovinam Viet Vo Dao Association and EVVF sponsors (Avensa and Avetex).
